Description	Board our comfortable bus from Geneva to Annecy, known as the "Venice of the Alps," a city that offers visitors harmonious and romantic landscapes. As you arrive, you'll be transported to the charming old town, where cobblestone streets and colorful buildings create a picturesque, fairy-tale atmosphere. Embark on a guided walking tour that will lead you through the heart of Annecy. Wander along the tranquil canals that weave through the town, and visit the iconic Palais de l'Île, a historical building that once served as a prison and is now one of the most photographed landmarks of Annecy. Continue your stroll up to the imposing Château d'Annecy, a medieval fortress offering sweeping views of the town and the surrounding mountains. Explore the charming Rue Saint-Claire, lined with boutiques, cafés, and bakeries, where you can feel the town's artistic spirit come to life. After your tour, enjoy some free time to explore at your own pace. Wander through the colorful pedestrian streets, visit the local markets filled with fresh produce, artisanal goods, and handmade crafts, or simply relax by the lake, taking in the stunning scenery. In the afternoon, be captivated by Geneva city tour, where modernity meets history in a perfect blend. Begin with a visit to the International Quarter, home to global diplomacy and renowned institutions like the United Nations and the Red Cross, offering a glimpse into Geneva's role on the world stage. Then, step back in time as you stroll through the Old Town, with its narrow cobblestone streets, charming squares, and the majestic St. Pierre Cathedral. Admire the city's rich history as you wander past centuries-old buildings, uncovering tales of Geneva's past either by walk or by mini train depending on the season/weather Finish your tour with a leisurely cruise along the picturesque lakeside, where the stunning Jet d'Eau shoots water high into the air, creating a striking contrast against the surrounding mountains. Don't miss the iconic Flower Clock, a vibrant symbol of Geneva's dedication to craftsmanship and nature. This unforgettable journey through the heart of the city will leave you with lasting memories of Geneva's unique charm and beauty.
