Opening	September 16
Time	8h00
Description	Depart from Geneva for Neuchâtel. This charming village borders the lake of the same name with an ideal setting between lake and mountains. A thousand-year-old city with incredible charm, Neuchâtel will seduce you with the elegance of its ocher-yellow buildings and its privileged location on the shores of the largest entirely Swiss lake. Stroll for free time in the historic center of the city: its central square, the covered markets or the passage des Corbets, Neuchâtel will surprise you! Eat on one of the terraces at Place Pury. In the afternoon, enjoy a cruise along the water to Estavayer le lac. Small medieval town, site populated since prehistoric times. Estavayer testifies to its rich history through its heritage, such as the 12th century Savoyard castle, the Gothic collegiate church and the cobbled streets.
